THE CHARLEROI MAIL

Entered second class mail at Charleroi, June 16, 1900, according to Act of Congress of March 3, 1879

VOL. 9 NO. 89 CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1908 One Cent

SAYS COMPANY IS ENGAGED IN ILLEGAL SALE OF ICE

The Attorney General, M. Hampton Todd, at Harrisburg, has acted very promptly in the matter of the quo warranto proceedings which were brought against the Donora Brewing company, by the Valley Crystal Ice and Storage company of North Charleroi, and has forwarded to D. M. McCloskey, the attorney for the local company, suggestion for a writ, addressed to the Court of Common Pleas, of Washington county. The hearing was held on last Thursday, at Harrisburg being attended by Attorney McCloskey and Tom P. Sloan, representing the Ice company of North Charleroi.

In the paper sent to the local attorney, Attorney General Todd calls attention to the fact that the Brewing company is engaged in the sale of ice at wholesale and retail to the public in the Borough of Donora, county of Washington and State of Pennsylvania without warrant or authority of law and asks that the Brewing company be summoned to court to show cause by what authority it engages in the said ice business.

The paper will be presented to the court at Washington, soon by Attorney McCloskey. If the court finds the company to be unlawfully engaging in the ice business it may either oust them from this branch of business or it may declare forfeiture of its charter for misuser.

EXPENDITURES OF TENER $950

Mr. John K. Tener, the Congressman elect from this district has filed his expense account at Washington. The entire amount spent by Mr. Tener this fall was $950. Nearly all this was in contributions to the committees of the counties composing their district. On the 10th of September he gave $150 to the Washington county Republican committee, on October, $200 to the Lawrence county committee and on October 15 gave $200 more to the Washington county organization. He contributed later $150 to this committee, $100 to the Beaver county committee and $150 to the Beaver marching committee. The most of his expenditures was for the Washington county committee, the sum of $500 being given to the organization.

ALLEGED DEFAMATION OF HIS CHARACTER

For alleged defamation of character Rudopih Staschcit, of Cokenurg, through his attorney, James R. Burnside, has filed a suit for $5,000 damages against Alexandria Watson, of the same place. The statement of the plaintiff sets forth in the usual form of such suits that he had up to the time of the uttering and publishing the defamatory statements been held in good respect by his friends and acquaintances and had not been guilty of the things alleged by the defendant. He alleges the defendant in the presence of several persons accused the plaintiff of being guilty of crimes against morality, thereby injuring his good name and reputation among his friends and acquaintances.

Killed a Bull Dog; Is Sued For It

Constable O. S. Simpson, of Canton township, is a defendant in a $150 damage suit filed against him yesterday by Frank Cotorino, of that township. The alleged killing of a female bull dog belonging to the plaintiff is the source of the action.

The plaintiff alleges that on September 2, 1908, the defendant with force of arms and unlawfully broke into and entered a certain building on the property of the plaintiff and took a valuable domestic animal, a female bull dog, and that the defendant unlawfully and without cause killed the dog.

BOLD ROBBERY OF A BUTCHER SHOP

Houston, Nov. 24.—One of the boldest robberies ever attempted here was perpetrated last evening just after nightfall when the Drew Riggle butcher shop was entered and the cash drawer robbed of a small sum of money, $6 being the amount.

A bloodhound was summoned from Washington, but the animal for some reason refused to take the trail and the search for the man was given up. This is but one of a series of robberies which have been committed in Houston. In boldness it overshadowed all its predecessors.

The intruder was surprised at work in the shop in the very act of looting. He plunged through a window and escaped.

Houston residents are aroused over the robberies being committed. It is believed the identity of the man connected with the Riggle robbery is known to their authorities and every effort will be made to gather in the fugitive. It was believed a bloodhound on the man's trail would speedily make him a captive.

SUITS IN EJECTMENT FILED YESTERDAY

Two suits in ejectment have been filed at Washington by H. C. and James I. Devore, of Monongahela, against Charles Hill, of that place. Messrs. McIlvaine, Vance and Gibson represents the plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs seek to secure possession of two lots in the second ward of Monongahela. The one fronts 31 feet on Waverly street and extends back a distance of 90 feet. The second lot fronts 30.43 feet on Parkinson street, and extends back 90.43 feet. The plaintiffs claim the title to these lots is in them.

BODY OF CHILD CUT IN TWAIN BY CAR WHEELS

Hackett, Nov. 24.—Too far away to save him, Mrs. Jacob Smith was compelled to stand and see the life crushed out of her 2-year-old son, Howard Hamilton Smith, by the wheels of a coal car here this afternoon.

George Fisher, who was dropping a string of loaded cars down the switch at the Nottingham mine, under one of which the little boy was caught, althought not in any way responsible for the accident, is prostrated with grief. Fisher quit work as soon as he learned what had happened and his friends have surrounded him constantly since in an effort to quiet him.

The Smith family resides in the vicinity of the railroad tracks at Hackett and the boy wandered out of the yard and was in the act of crawling under one of the cars when it was started by the impact of the other cars above on the switch.

The boy was unable to get out before two cars had borne down upon him. The wheels crossed his chest cutting his tender frame almost in two.

Mrs. Smith had hurried out of the house after her son and discovered him just as he was crawling under the car. Agonized at the sight she screamed and started toward him, but was too late. She picked up the mangled babe and bore it quickly into the house. Life became extinct in a few minutes. No one save Mrs. Smith saw the distressing catastrophe.

Jacob Smith, the father of the child was formerly a resident of Washington, where he is well known. He was at work at the mine at the time the babe was run down. The infant was a bright little fellow and was a favorite among the residents of Hackettt.

FOREIGNER KILLED AT HOUSTON RUN

A foreigner by the name of Giovania Cavagisini was killed by Train No. 151, due at Monongahela at 11:02, near Houston Run yesterday morning. He was working for the American Pipe Manufacturing company, which is putting in the new water line for the Pennsylvania Railroad company. The men were working along the track and as is the usual custom they did not get out of the way until the last moment. The one failed to move fast enough as a result he was struck by the train. The body was hurled a considerable distance and when picked up almost every bone was broken. Death was instantaneous. He was taken to Bebout's undertaking rooms Monongahela and prepared for burial.

LITERARY GENIUS IN OUR OWN TOWN

Many of the Charleroi people are not aware of the fact that there is a literary genius in this place who contributes monthly to some of the best magazines and periodicals in the country. This person is Goodloe H. Thomas, or "Thomas the Printer" as he is familiarly known, and former editor of the Mail. At this time there is a Thanksgiving poem of his, "The Possum Dinner" appearing in different newspapers and journals of the United States and it is taking well. This poem is being put out by the American Press Association which sometime ago purchased it. Mr. Thomas has contributed a number of prose selections to magazines, but his greatest sale is of poems. Most of these are in dialect and find a ready sale in the literary market.

Star Theatre.

The bill at the Star theatre this week is an exceptionally good one. Chink Brown the Chinese Impersonator gives a performance that is entirely new and very entertaining. It is certainly the best thing of its kind ever seen here. Mosie Herman in a high class singing act is very clever, she has a splendid voice of good range and her songs are catchy, and had to respond to many encores. Teed and Lasell in their comedy sketch, "The Waiter and the Actress" took the house by storm. It is one long hearty laugh from start to finish. It is very [illegible]

GIRL CLAIMS SHE WAS ARRESTED AND FINED ILLEGALLY

Mary Mathewson alias Mary Madison, of Roscoe, through her attorney, Hugh E. Fergus, has started action in the county courts wherein she desires the court to pass upon the records of Justice J. C. Flack of Roscoe in a prosecution against Mary Madison. Upon the filing of the petition a certiorari was issued on the justice.

The defendant alleges that she was unjustly arrested and fined. She sets forth in her petition that in November 19 last she was arrested by Constable W. H. Thompson, of Roscoe; that she was taken before Justice J. C. Flack, where an information was read to her charging her with assault and battery, upon complaint of Edward White. She alleges that witnesses for the commonwealth were called and heard, but that she was refused the right to call witnesses, although she asked to be allowed to do so. After the hearing of the witnesses for the prosecution, she says, she was fined $10 and costs, in all amounting to $17.53. This she paid under protest, receiving a receipt for the same.

She sets forth eleven exceptions to the justice's record which she desires the court to pass upon.

ED M'CLEARY IS PRESIDENT OF CLUB

The Washington County club of the Pennsylvania State college held a meeting and organized for the year 1908-1909 by electing the following officers President E. McCleary, Allenport; V. pres. P. Lyon; secretary. J. W. Banfield; treasurer, S. J. McNary. Members—1908: H. W. Bell, Midway. 1909. E. McCleary, Allenport, S. J. McNary, Burgettstown: P. Lyon, Burgettstown; F. M. Smith, Finleyville. 1911: A. B. Gray, Roscoe; W. K. Scott, Burgettstown; S. H. Painter, Avella; J. W. Banfield, Houston, 1912: W. R. Proudfit, Burgettstown; P. Forsythe, Donora.

The Washington County club, though small in numbers, is one of the most popular clubs in the college. McCleary, who is honored and held in highest esteem by all State men, is captain of the 'varsity football team, while Gray plays the position of center.

NONE OF SONS WILL TAKE RESPONSIBILITY

George Riggle, a man 69 years of age and having five able bodied sons was taken to the county home at Arden to spend the rest of his days. None of the sons will for some reason take the responsibility of keeping their parent, although some of them are in business and able to support him.

Announcement.

To the Voters of Charleroi Borough:

I have decided to become a candidate for the office of Burgess at the next election in February, 1909. I will be a candidate on the Independent ticket, and while I would like to have given this matter more thought and think that this announcement is somewhat premature, certain things are being said that compels me to announce my candidacy at this time.

This is the dope that is being handed out: That if a candidate is satisfactory to the ring (whoever they are) should get the nomination then I would not be a candidate that if a candidate is nominated not acceptable to the ring, then I would be put up in an endeavor to beat this unacceptable candidate. Now the people that are circulating these stories must be nearer to the so-called ring that I am, or else it is simply an invention of their own brain, as it is all news to me, although if the ring, or anybody else, for that matter, wants to vote for me on election day I certainly will not object.

I have resided in Charleroi long enough for you to know me. If you think that I can fill the office with credit to the borough and myself, I Could ask your support.

Yours respectfully

George Newton.

TEACHER ELECTED BY THE DIRECTORS LAST NIGHT

As a result of the increased attendance at night school, the Board of Directors were last night compelled to meet and elect another instructor. There are already two regular teachers and two of the High School faculty, Professors Smith and Huston are assisting in the work. Even with the election of an additional teacher for the night school, it is feared that these High school men will have to continue in the night work.

The one elected last night was Mrs. G. H. Thomas. The salary will be the same as the second teacher, $20. She will take up her duties at once. The enrollment to date is 217 and the average attendance is about 120. Last night there were 27 new applicants.

There is probably no other branch of education in Charleroi that is causing such a profound interest among all classes. The laboring men, boys, women and girls are the ones to whom there comes the direct benefits, but among many others the interest is pronounced. There has been some adverse criticism of the school board starting the school, but not from those who properly understand matters.

BUFFALO JONES DELIVERS LECTURE

Charles H., or as he is better known, Buffalo Jones appeared at the school hall last night in the second of the High School course attractions and in his lecture illustrated by a beautiful view, of "A Lifetime With Wild Animals," created a most favorable impression. There were quite a number present, the school hall being fairly well filled. The lecture was entirely of wild animals. Mr. Jones introduced his address with the story of how he gained the title of "Buffalo" The lecture was most instructive as well as entertaining and there was not a person present but what learned something, a suggestion of which had never entered their mind before. The views well described with a life likeness the subjects upon which the lecturer was dwelling. One of the most beautiful of these views was a reproduction of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado river. Moving pictures were shown of the captures of several wild beasts and interesting stories were in this manner told of the wild animals and their habits.

One thing in certain if Mr. Jones should appear here again he would receive a warm welcome among the people of this place.

SCHOOL WILL OPEN ON THANKSGIVING

On Thanksgiving day school will open in the new South Brownsville building which at the present time is being put in readiness. It has been six months since the old structure on the same site was destroyed by fire, and the work on the new building has been hustled.

The present structure is built of solid stone foundation and buff brick. When it is completed it will be one of the finest school buildings in the valley. While the finishing touches have not yet been added, the contractors have everything in readiness for school, and the remaining work will be done after closing next spring.

The architect for the new building is J. G. Fulton of Uniontown and the contractors are Conn and Son of the same place. The building has sixteen rooms, including thirteen recitation rooms, auditorium, principals office and library. The rooms were furnished by C. K. Chalfant of Speers, representing the New Jersey seating company. The desks are made of red birch, and the rest of the furnishings correspond.

Berryman's store will close at six o'clock Wednesday night, also all day Thanksgiving Day. 1t

GAME DINNER AT THE TURN VEREINS

On Wednesday evening of this week a game supper will be given in the Turner hall by the local Turn Verein. This will be for the members of the club and it is thought that there will be many attend. Supper will start at 6 o'clock. The menu will consist of deer, wild duck and geese and pig.

Foot Caught in the Machinery

Joseph Underwood, Jr., of Roscoe, suffered a painful injury Sunday by having his foot caught in some machinery of his gasoline launch in which he with some friends was making a trip to near Lock No. 6, at Rices Landing. He will be kept to his room for ten or twelve days. Mr. Underwood had some of the tendons torn loose.

Operation Being Performed Today

An opperation is being performed this afternoon on Mrs. J. H. Farquhar, the Monessen woman who it was feared would die from the results of the injuries received in the accident at East Charleroi on Sunday, the success of which depends on whether or not her life will be saved. The physicians gave out the information last night that Mrs. Farquhar had a chance of recovery, but if she would her mind would be affected. The latest reports are very discouraging however.

Case Continued to the February Term

The case of M. E. Reeves vs F. W. Jones, both local people, which was to have come up in common pleas court at Washington yesterday was postponed until the February term, on the account of an important witness for the defendant, Charles Radcliffe, being unable to appear.

Announcing as Candidates.

From now on the candidates for public offices in Charleroi will be announcing until the date of election. Several days ago the Mail printed a list of those who were mentioned for the one of the principal offices, that of burgess. These names were ones that had been heard on the streets and whispered among their friends. Some of them have decided not to contest for the office while there have been more added to the number. Yesterday in the columns of the Mail there was one of Charleroi representative men announced himself as a contestant for the office. This person is George Newton, who for some years was a Justice of the Peace in this place. A week ago Capt, J. K. Hein, a popular third precinct man through these columns told his friends of his intention to run. These are the only two that have thus far made their official announcement, but at this early moment it can be readily seen that the office of burgess will be one of the hottest contested in the spring election in the history of Charleroi. We feel confident that from the many good men that will come out the voters of Charleroi can choose an able and efficient official who will have the best interests of the town at heart.

Another office which bids fair of being hotly contested is that of Tax Collector. It is not known as yet whether or not B. L. Parsons, the present incumbent, will come out for office or not, but in case he does not there are three men announced to date, any one of which would if elected fill the place with credit. These are Dennis A. Oates, Samuel Pardoe and Allen S. Mansfield. The latter is the former Tax Collector in Charleroi.

It is too early in the fight to discuss the matters of party, or principal, but rather the men. For council there are three members to be chosen. President Jones is now serving his last term as is Gottheld. Frew has only served a part of a year to fill out the unexpired term of J. A. Odbert, resigned, whose term of office would have been out also. In the event of Hein being elected as Burgess, there will have to be another to serve in his place. It is possible that C. O. Frye who was elected last spring to office will leave Charleroi in the spring, so it is possile that there will be the unusual experience of placing five of the seven councilmen in office in one spring. Of course council themselves would fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of Mr. Hein and Mr. Frye, and even if the former should get the office for which he has announced, and the latter resign, the people would vote for but three.

AMONG THE THEATERS

Coyle Theatre.

Manager Coyle of the Coyle theatre has what he believes, a surprise in store for the patrons of his popular play-house, in the presentation next Wednesday of Lem B. Parker's powerful drama of the phase of present day American life, entitled "Married for Money," or "The Old Wife and the New." The play is said to be one of the most absorbing and startling stories dealing with one of the greatest evils our social life is afflicted with, written in recent years.

John Story, president of the United Iron company, at the opening of the story had risen to the presidency of the great corporation after a long apprenticeship served as laborer, foreman, superintendent and finally general-manager of one of the mills of the combine. The president of the trust died suddenly and Story was elevated to the presidency by a section of the directors who recognized his worth. This was not accomplished, however, until his wife, who had shared all the troubles and privations of his early struggles, humiliated herself and almost became the victim of one of the board of directors, Thomas Barr, who as a reward for the votes controlled by himself and friends, demanded the sacrifice of her wifely honor. Urged by a desire to aid her husband whose one ambition in life was about to be realized, she was about to succumb, but was happily relieved by the timely appearance of a young man friend of the family. Ned Newell, the son of a bankrupt mine-owner, who threatened to expose the unprincipled Barr to his fellow directors of the company.

The second act, three years later, shows John Story in the zenith of his power as one of the highest salaried officials in the United States, and now ranked as one of the Iron magnates of the country. The wife of his youth, and the mother of his daughter, did not take kindly to the artificial life of the gilded society set in which they were supposed to move, and the husband, ambitions to shine not only in the financial world, but in the social world as well, sought to cast her off and become enamored with a beautiful and reigning operatic star, who he believed could fill the social requirements of the wife of a man of his prominence.

The third act, two years later finds Story the husband of the actress, and through a manipulation of the stock market by a clique of dissatisfied directors of the corporation led by Thomas Barr, his bitterest enemy, he is financially ruined, and indicted by the United States court under the anti-trust law, and the United Iron company goes out of existance. In the midst of these troubles, his actress wife deserts him upon learning that he is penniless, and the last act shows him a prisoner with fines aggregating $100,000 hanging over his head, and deserted by all his erstwhile fair weather friends.

How he is ultimately saved by the wife and daughter whom he forsook is graphically told in this act. The play abounds in thrilling situations and startling climaxes and the interest never lags from the rise to the fall of the curtain. It has been pronounced by many to be the equal in intensity of human interest and emotional as "The Man of the Hour," or "The Lion and the Mouse."

The production is given under the direction of Clay T. Vance, the well-known manager and producer, who has provided an adequate costume and scenic investment and a representative company of unusual merit.

THAT THE POWER OF MONEY

in making more money is the secret of getting rich is generally admitted.

The average so-called "savings deposit" is only $100—yet this $100 represents 6 per cent interest on nearly $7,000 for a full year. As the most of these accounts were started with a deposit of one to ten dollars and gradually increased to their present size, doesn't it seem that you can do fully as well? Make up your mind to do it—then it's merely a case of application. Your earnings are as large, or larger, than those of the average depositor referred to, only—you haven't been banking your money.

Something Good. "MARRIED FOR MONEY." Tomorrow Night, Coyle Theatre.

THE CHARLEROI MAIL

Entered second class mail at Charleroi, June 16, 1900, according to Act of Congress of March 3, 1879

VOL. 9 NO. 89 CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA. TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 24, 1908 One Cent

SAYS COMPANY IS ENGAGED IN ILLEGAL SALE OF ICE

The Attorney General, M. Hampton Todd, at Harrisburg, has acted very promptly in the matter of the quo warranto proceedings which were brought against the Rostock Brewing company, by the Valley Crystal Ice and Storage company of North Charleroi, and has forwarded to D. M. McCloskey, the attorney for the local company, suggestion for a writ, addressed to the Court of Common Pleas, of Washington county. The hearing was held on last Thursday, at Harrisburg being attended by Attorney McCloskey and Tom P. Sloan, representing the Ice company of North Charleroi.

In the paper sent to the local attorney, Attorney General Todd calls attention to the fact that the Brewing company is engaged in the sale of ice at wholesale and retail to the public in the Borough of Donora, county of Washington and State of Pennsylvania without warrant or authority of law and asks that the Brewing company be summoned to court to show cause by what authority it engages in the said ice business.

The paper will be presented to the court at Washington, soon by Attorney McCloskey. If the court finds the company to be unlawfully engaging in the ice business it may either oust them from this branch of business or it may declare forfeiture of its charter for misuser.

EXPENDITURES OF TENER $950

Mr. John K. Tener, the Congressman elect from this district has filed his expense account at Washington. The entire amount spent by Mr. Tener this fall was $950. Nearly all this was in contributions to the committees of the counties composing their district. On the 19th of September he gave $150 to the Washington county Republican committee, on October, $200 to the Lawrence county committee and on October 15 gave $200 more to the Washington county organization. He contributed later $150 to this committee. $50 to the Beaver county committee and $150 to the Beaver marching committee. The most of his expenditures was for the Washington county committee, the sum of $500 being given to the organization.

ALLEGED DEFAMATION OF HIS CHARACTER

For alleged defamation of character Rudolph Steecheit, of Cokeburg, through his attorney, James R. Burnside, has filed a suit for $5,000 damages against Alexandria Watson, of the same place. The statement of the plaintiff sets forth in the usual form of such suits that he had up to the time of the uttering and publishing the defamatory statements been held in good respect by his friends and acquaintances and had not been guilty of the things alleged by the defendant. He alleges the defendant in the presence of several persons accused the plaintiff of being guilty of crimes against mortality, thereby injuring his good name and reputation among his friends and acquaintances.

Killed a Bull Dog; Is Sued For It

Constable O. S. Simpson, of Canton township, is a defendant in a $150 damage suit filed against him yesterday by Frank Cotorino, of that township. The alleged killing of a female bull dog belonging to the plaintiff is the source of the action.

The plaintiff alleges that on September 2, 1908, the defendant with force of arms and unlawfully broke into and entered a certain building on the property of the plaintiff and took a valuable domestic animal, a female bull dog, and that the defendant unlawfully and without cause killed the dog.

BOLD ROBBERY OF A BUTCHER SHOP

Houston, Nov. 24.—One of the boldest robberies ever attempted here was perpetrated last evening just after nightfall when the Drew Riggle butcher shop was entered and the cash drawer robbed of a small sum of money, $6 being the amount.

A bloodhound was summoned from Washington, but the animal for some reason refused to take the trail and the search for the man was given up. This is but one of a series of robberies which have been committed in Houston. In boldness it overshadowed all its predecessors.

The intruder was surprised at work in the shop in the very act of looting. He plunged through a window and escaped.

Houston residents are aroused over the robberies being committed. It is believed the identity of the man connected with the Riggle robbery is known to their authorities and every effort will be made to gather in the fugitive. It was believed a bloodhound on the man's trail would speedily make him a captive.

SUITS IN EJECTMENT FILED YESTERDAY

Two suits in ejectment have been filed at Washington by H. C. and James I. Devore, of Monongahela, against Charles Hill, of that place. Messrs. McIlvaine, Vance and Gibson represents the plaintiffs.

The plaintiffs seek to secure possession of two lots in the second ward of Monongahela. The one fronts 31 feet on Waverly street and extends back a distance of 90 feet. The second lot fronts 30.43 feet on Parkinson street, and extends back 90.43 feet. The plaintiffs claim the title to these lots is in them.

No. 191 the Lucky Number.

Miss Jean Moore 1009 Lincoln avenue held the lucky number at the Star theatre last night and wins a Thanksgiving Turkey.

A Turkey will be given away tonight and one Wednesday night at the last show.

Berryman's store will close at six o'clock Wednesday night also all day Thanksgiving Day. 1t

Attend the Oyster Supper in the Masonic building, Wednesday evening from 5 to 10. 89t1

BODY OF CHILD CUT IN TWAIN BY CAR WHEELS

Hackett, Nov. 24.—Too far away to save him, Mrs. Jacob Smith was compelled to stand and see the life crushed out of her 2-year-old son, Howard Hamilton Smith, by the wheels of a coal car here this afternoon.

George Fisher, who was dropping a string of loaded cars down the switch at the Nottingham mine, under one of which the little boy was caught, althought not in any way responsible for the accident, is prostrated with grief. Fisher quit work as soon as he learned what had happenned and his friends have surrounded him constantly since in an effort to quiet him.

The Smith family resides in the vicinity of the railroad tracks at Hackett and the boy wandered out of the yard and was in the act of crawling under one of the cars when it was started by the impact of the other cars above on the switch.

The boy was unable to get out before two cars had borne down upon him. The wheels crossed his chest cutting his tender frame almost in two.

Mrs. Smith had hurried out of the house after her son and discovered him just as he was crawling under the car. Agonized at the sight she screamed and started toward him, but was too late. She picked up the mangled babe and bore it quickly into the house. Life became extinct in a few minutes. No one save Mrs. Smith saw the distressing catastrophe.

Jacob Smith, the father of the child was formerly a resident of Washington, where he is well known. He was at work at the mine at the time the babe was run down. The infant was a bright little fellow and was a favorite among the residents of Hackettt.

FOREIGNER KILLED AT HOUSTON RUN

A foreigner by the name of Giovania Cavagisini was killed by Train No. 151, due at Monongahela at 11:02, near Houston Run yesterday morning. He was working for the American Pipe Manufacturing company, which is putting in the new water line for the Pennsylvania Railroad company. The men were working along the track and as is the usual custom they did not get out of the way until the last moment. The one failed to move fast enough as a result he was struck by the train. The body was hurled a considerable distance and when picked up almost every bone was broken. Death was instantaneous. He was taken to Bebout's undertaking rooms Monongahela and prepared for burial.

LITERARY GENIUS IN OUR OWN TOWN

Many of the Charleroi people are not aware of the fact that there is a literary genius in this place who contributes monthly to some of the best magazines and periodicals in the country. This person is Goodloe H. Thomas, or "Thomas the Printer" as he is familiarly known, and former editor of the Mail. At this time there is a Thanksgiving poem of his, "The Possum Dinner" appearing in different newspapers and journals of the United States and it is taking well. This poem is being put out by the American Press Association which sometime ago purchased it. Mr. Thomas has contributed a number of prose selections to magazines, but his greatest sale is of poems. Most of these are in dialect and find a ready sale in the literary market.

Star Theatre.

The bill at the Star theatre this week is an exceptionally good one. Chink Brown the Chinese impersonator gives a performance that is entirely new and very entertaining. It is certainly the best thing of its kind ever seen here. Monie Herman in a high class singing act is very clever, she has a splendid voice of good range and her songs are catchy, and had to respond to many encores. Teed and Lucell in their comedy sketch "The Waiter and the Actress" are the

GIRL CLAIMS SHE WAS ARRESTED AND FINED ILLEGALLY

Mary Mathewson alias Mary Madison, of Roscoe, through her attorney, Hugh E. Fergus, has started action in the county courts wherein she desires the court to pass upon the records of Justice J. C. Flack of Roscoe in a prosecution against Mary Madison. Upon the filing of the petition a certiorari was issued on the justice.

The defendant alleges that she was unjustly arrested and fined. She sets forth in her petition that in November 19 last she was arrested by Constable W. H. Thompson, of Roscoe, that she was taken before Justice J. C. Flack, where an information was read to her charging her with assault and battery, upon complaint of Edward White. She alleges that witnesses for the commonwealth were called and heard, but that she was refused the right to call witnesses, although she asked to be allowed to do so. After the hearing of the witnesses for the prosecution, she says, she was fined $10 and costs, in all amounting to $17.53. This she paid under protest, receiving a receipt for the same.

She sets forth eleven exceptions to the justice's record which she desires the court to pass upon.

ED M'CLEARY IS PRESIDENT OF CLUB

The Washington County club of the Pennsylvania State college held a meeting and organized for the year 1908-1909 by electing the following officers President E. McCleary, Allenport; V. pres. P. Lyon; secretary, J. W. Banfield; treasurer, S. J. McNary. Members—1908: H. W. Bell, Midway. 1909. E. McCleary, Allenport, S. J. McNary, Burgettstown; P. Lyon, Burgettstown; F. M. Smith, Finleyville. 1911: A. B. Gray, Roscoe; W. K. Scott, Burgettstown; S. H. Painter, Avella; J. W. Banfield, Houston, 1912: W. R. Proudfit, Burgettstown; P. Forsythe, Donora.

The Washington County club, though small in numbers, is one of the most popular clubs in the college. McCleary, who is honored and held in highest esteem by all State men, is captain of the 'varsity football team, while Gray plays the position of center.

NONE OF SONS WILL TAKE RESPONSIBILITY

George Riggle, a man 69 years of age and having five able bodied sons was taken to the county home at Arden to spend the rest of his days. None of the sons will for some reason take the responsibility of keeping their parent, although some of them are in business and able to support him.

Announcement.

To the Voters of Charleroi Borough:

I have decided to become a candidate for the office of Burgess at the next election in February, 1909. I will be a candidate on the Independent ticket, and while I would like to have given this matter more thought and think that this announcement is somewhat premature, certain things are being said that compels me to announce my candidacy at this time.

This is the dope that is being handed out: That if a candidate is satisfactory to the ring (whoever they are) should get the nomination then I would not be a candidate that if a candidate is nominated not acceptable to the ring, then I would be put up in an endeavor to beat this unacceptable candidate. Now the people that are circulating these stories must be nearer to the so-called ring that I am, their own brain, as it is all news to me, although if the ring, or anybody else, for that matter, wants to vote for me on election day I certainly will not object.

I have resided in Charleroi long enough for you to know me. If you think that I can fill the office with credit to the borough and myself, I thank you for support.

TEACHER ELECTED BY THE DIRECTORS LAST NIGHT

As a result of the increased attendance at night school, the Board of Directors were last night compelled to meet and elect another instructor. There are already two regular teachers and two of the High School faculty, Professors Smith and Huston are assisting in the work. Even with the election of an additional teacher for the night school, it is feared that these High school men will have to continue in the night work.

The one elected last night was Mrs. G. H. Thomas. The salary will be the same as the second teacher, $20. She will take up her duties at once. The enrollment to date is 217 and the average attendance is about 120. Last night there were 27 new applicants.

There is probably no other branch of education in Charleroi that is receiving such a profound interest among all classes. The laboring men, boys, women and girls are the ones to whom there comes the direct benefits, but among many others the interest is pronounced. There has been some adverse criticism of the school board starting the school, but not from those who properly understand matters.

BUFFALO JONES DELIVERS LECTURE

Charles H., or as he is better known, Buffalo Jones appeared at the school hall last night in the second of the High School course attractions and in his lecture illustrated by a beautiful view, of "A Lifetime With Wild Animals," created a most favorable impression. There were quite a number present, the school hall being fairly well filled. The lecture was entirely of wild animals. Mr. Jones introduced his address with the story of how he gained the title of "Buffalo" The lecture was most instructive as well as entertaining and there was not a person present but what learned something, a suggestion or which had never entered their mind before. The views well described with a life likeness the subjects upon which the lecturer was dwelling. One of the most beautiful of these views was a reproduction of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado river. Moving pictures were shown of the captures of several wild beasts and interesting stories were in this manner told of the wild animals and their habits.

One thing in certain if Mr. Jones should appear here again he would receive a warm welcome among the people of this place.

SCHOOL WILL OPEN ON THANKSGIVING

On Thanksgiving day school will open in the new South Brownsville building which at the present time is being put in readiness. It has been six months since the old structure on the same site was destroyed by fire, and the work on the new building has been hustled.

The present structure is built of solid stone foundation and buff brick. When it is completed it will be one of the finest school buildings in the valley. While the finishing touches have not yet been added, the contractors have everything in readiness for school, and the remaining work will be done after closing next spring.

The architect for the new building is J. G. Fulton of Uniontown and the contractors are Conn and Son of the same place. The building has sixteen rooms, including thirteen recitation rooms, auditorium, principals office and library. The rooms were furnished by C. K. Chalfant of Speers, representing the New Jersey seating company. The desks are made of red birch, and the rest of the furnishings correspond.

Berryman's store will close at six o'clock Wednesday night, also all day Thanksgiving Day. 1t

GAME DINNER AT THE TURN VEREINS

On Wednesday evening of this week a game supper will be given in the Turner hall by the local Turn Verein. This will be for the members of the club and it is thought that there will be many attend. Supper will start at 6 o'clock. The menu will consist of deer, wild duck and geese and pig.

Foot Caught in the Machinery

Joseph Underwood, Jr., of Roscoe, suffered a painful injury Sunday by having his foot caught in some machinery of his gasoline launch in which he with some friends was making a trip to near Lock No. 6, at Rices Landing. He will be kept to his room for ten or twelve days. Mr. Underwood had some of the tendons torn loose.

Operation Being Performed Today

An opperation is being performed this afternoon on Mrs. J. H. Farquhar, the Monessen woman who it was feared would die from the results of the injuries received in the accident at East Charleroi on Sunday, the success of which depends on whether or not her life will be saved. The physicians gave out the information last night that Mrs. Farquhar had a chance of recovery, but if she would her mind would be affected. The latest reports are very discouraging however.

Case Continued to the February Term

The case of M. E. Reeves vs F. W. Jones, both local people, which was to have come up in common pleas court at Washington yesterday was postponed until the February term, on the account of an important witness for the defendant, Charles Radcliffe, being unable to appear.

Announcing as Candidates.

From now on the candidates for public offices in Charleroi will be announcing until the date of election. Several days ago the Mail printed a list of those who were mentioned for the one of the principal offices, that of burgess. These names were ones that had been heard on the streets and whispered among their friends. Some of them have decided not to contest for the office while there have been more added to the number. Yesterday in the columns of the Mail there was one of Charleroi representative men announced himself as a contestant for the office. This person is George Newton, who for some years was a Justice of the Peace in this place. A week ago Capt. J. K. Hein, a popular third precinct man through these columns told his friends of his intention to run. These are the only two that have thus far made their official announcement, but at this early moment it can be readily seen that the office of burgess will be one of the hottest contested in the spring election in the history of Charleroi. We feel confident that from the many good men that will come out the voters of Charleroi can choose an able and efficient official who will have the best interests of the town at heart.

Another office which bids fair of being hotly contested is that of Tax Collector. It is not known as yet whether or not B. L. Parsons, the present incumbent, will come out for office or not, but in case he does not there are three men announced to date, any one of which would if elected fill the place with credit. These are Dennis A. Oates, Samuel Pardoe and Allen S. Mansfield. The latter is the former Tax Collector in Charleroi.

It is too early in the fight to discuss the matters of party, or principal, but rather the men. For council there are three members to be chosen. President Jones is now serving his last term as is Gotthold. Frew has only served a part of a year to fill out the unexpired term of J. A. Odbert, resigned, whose term of office would have been out also. In the event of Hein being elected as Burgess, there will have to be another to serve in his place. It is possible that C. O. Frye who was elected last spring to office will leave Charleroi in the spring, so it is possile that there will be the unusual experience of placing five of the seven councilmen in office in one spring. Of course council themselves would fill the vacancies caused by the resignation of Mr. Hein and Mr. Frye, and even if the former should get the office for which he has announced, and the latter resign, the people would vote for but three.

Electric Sparks.

A French inventor has produced a horseshoe of leather which is secured to the hoof by a mixture of cement and asphalt. Successful trials of the device have been made in Paris. The new shoe does away with the crude and probably painful process of nailing.

A new rule in the Paris Opera forbids singers who have just expired to rise and bow their thanks for kind applause. They who die for art's sake must die as art demands, till the end of the act.

"A man is only half a man until he gets married," says a woman writer. Yes, and after that he may be nobody at all.

AMONG THE THEATERS

Coyle Theatre.

Manager Coyle of the Coyle theatre has what he believes, a surprise in store for the patrons of his popular play-house, in the presentation next Wednesday of Lem B. Parker's powerful drama of the phase of present day American life, entitled "Married for Money," or "The Old Wife and the New." The play is said to be one of the most absorbing and startling stories dealing with one of the greatest evils our social life is afflicted with, written in recent years.

John Story, president of the United Iron company, at the opening of the story had risen to the presidency of the great corporation after a long apprenticeship served as laborer, foreman, superintendent and finally general-manager of one of the mills of the combine. The president of the trust died suddenly and Story was elevated to the presidency by a section of the directors who recognized his worth. This was not accomplished, however, until his wife, who had shared all the troubles and privations of his early struggles, humiliated herself and almost became the victim of one of the board of directors, Thomas Barr, who as a reward for the votes controlled by himself and friends, demanded the sacrifice of her wifely honor. Urged by a desire to aid her husband whose one ambition in life was about to be realized, she was about to succumb, but was happily relieved by the timely appearance of a young man friend of the family, Ned Newell, the son of a bankrupt mine-owner, who threatened to expose the unprincipled Barr to his fellow directors of the company.

The second act, three years later, shows John Story in the zenith of his power as one of the highest salaried officials in the United States, and now ranked as one of the Iron magnates of the country. The wife of his youth, and the mother of his daughter, did not take kindly to the artificial life of the gilded society set in which they were supposed to move, and the husband, ambitions to shine not only in the financial world, but in the social world as well, sought to cast her off and become enamored with a beautiful and reigning operatic star, who he believed could fill the social requirements of the wife of a man of his prominence.

The third act, two years later finds Story the husband of the actress, and through a manipulation of the stock market by a clique of dissatisfied directors of the corporation led by Thomas Barr, his bitterest enemy, he is financially ruined, and indicted by the United States court under the anti-trust law, and the United Iron company goes out of existance. In the midst of these troubles, his actress wife deserts him upon learning that he is penniless, and the last act shows him a prisoner with fines aggregating $100,000 hanging over his head, and deserted by all his erstwhile fair weather friends.

How he is ultimately saved by the wife and daughter whom he forsook is graphically told in this act. The play abounds in thrilling situations and startling climaxes and the interest never lags from the rise to the fall of the curtain. It has been pronounced by many to be the equal in intensity of Luman interest and emotional as "The Man of the Hour," or "The Lion and the Mouse."

The production is given under the direction of Clay T. Vance, the well-known manager and producer, who has provided an adequate costume and scenic investment and a representative company of unusual merit.

THAT THE POWER OF MONEY

in making more money is the secret of getting rich is generally admitted.

The average so-called "savings deposit" is only $400—yet this $400 represents 6 per cent interest on nearly $7,000 for a full year. As the most of these accounts were started with a deposit of one to tendollars and gradually increased to their present size, doesn't it seem that you can do fully as well? Make up your mind to do it—then it's merely a case of application. Your earnings are as large, or larger, than those of the average depositor referred to. Why—you haven't been banking your money.

Come in and let us tell you some other reasons why you should have a bank account.
